The ICAR- Central Research Institute for Jute and Allied Fibres (ICAR- CRIJAF) organized a Preamble to the Constitution reading programme in all its Campuses, i.e. Barrackpore, Kolkata and its Regional Stations – Central Seed Research Station for Jute and Allied Fibres, BudBud, Burdwan, West Bengal, Sisal Research Station, Bamra, Odisha, Ramie Research Station, Sorbhog, Assam, Sunhemp Research Station, Pratapgarh, Uttar Pradesh and Krishi Vigyan Kendra, Burdwan, West Bengal to mark the 70th anniversary of the adoption of the Constitution, participated by the Institute personnel including RAs/ SRFs/ JRFs/ YPs, etc.,

26th November has its own importance in the history of independent India because on this day in 1949, the Constitution of India was adopted and it came into effect on 26th January, 1950. It is, therefore, befittingly called the 'Constitution Day' marking a definite watershed moment in Indian History.

Various programmes are slated to be organized throughout the year to commemorate this historic occasion.
